Petition 2014/72 of Tanya Peterson

To the Primary Production Select Committee

Thank you for sending me the review from The Ministry of Justice. I would like to know a couple of things if you don't mind.

As the Petition has been published along with the review, I would like to know why my supporting 53 documents and the overview that I presented verbally on the 3/11/2016, along with three other documents that I e-mailed to Andrew Brideman, the Ministry of Justice on the 7/12/2016, to prove Treasonous activities which was taking place at that time. Why these documents have not been published on the Parliamentary website, as it was a brief outlay of events which took place to support my Petition. My researcher requested a trolley to allow him to wheel my historic evidence to support the Petition; I was informed that 20 documents could only be submitted, this was impossible to break down, that is why only 53 documents could be supplied, other supporting documents were available on request. Example, McIntyre.

For my understanding I was lead to believe from your office that everything was to be published for viewing, this includes the limited amount of documents that I was allowed to present.

What is the time frame for the response from the Primary Production Select Committee, and the avenue that both parties need to go down, which again was discussed when I presented my Overview to the 9 members of the Select Committee in early November?

Look forward to your response.

Yours sincerely

Tanya Peterson
