Hon Prime Minister (Bill English)

We have been in touch with you over several years, with regard to the returned serviceman, William Magnus Peterson (13/840)

I would like you to address this immediately, so the family can have closure. Mr Noel Peterson can then see justice for what took place toward his parents.

The audio tape mentioned frequently in the letter addressed to the Solicitor General would explain the Select Committee's opinion regarding the Peterson Petition. This audio is filed with the Select Committee.

I personally find this very disturbing. However, the Ministry of Justice can write their own comments of events which took place. I also find it disturbing that this Government has chosen to not address the Treasonous acts against our Returned Servicemen.

Why are Maori Military Veterans recognized under the Ministry of Justice when the Peterson's do not receive recognition as Native under the same Ministry?

Did we not all fight as British subjects?

The Defence Department's legal team have assisted the Ministry of Justice into the Maori Veterans enquiry.

William Magnus Peterson served our country three times overseas. The evidence shows this family has been segregated. It tells me that we have a racist problem. There appears to be a double standard.

This is a bloody disgrace, as there was also an enquiry into your region. I have attached correspondence with the Petition into Parliament, along with the verbal overview. This was not published along with the Laws to the Primary Production Select Committee. There is an audio tape available.

Attached is the reply from the Ministry of Justice, as well as a letter addressed to the Solicitor General.

Hon Minister; Please realise that if these events are not addressed immediately, all parties involved will be trialed under the Treasonous Acts, from when the time of events took place. (The Criminal Act of 1961, Section 73.)

Helen Clack abolished the death penalty in 1989. Does this mean that the Criminal Act of 1961 is null and void?

Tanya's claim dates back 102 years. Also the Land Act of 1924 for financial gain does not apply to a soldier under the Discharged Soldiers Settlement Act of 1915.

I find it amazing. The question here is; Why is there so much interest from the Government back then on this particular family? The barriers for the Peterson's claim which we currently represent today, disappointingly appears that history is repeating itself.

We all know the reason why.

For recognition of William Magnus Peterson, it would be respectful to have part of the Waimiha Estate returned to the Peterson family. Part of the estate is currently for sale. The rightful heir to this estate is Mr Noel Peterson. He will be 99 on Christmas Day.

Looking forward to your response.

Extensive historical documented research validates my conclusions concerning the Peterson claim.

Hoping it's patriotic.

Yours sincerely
